

Science CPD to Support Probationer Teachers Implement Curriculum for Excellence in the Secondary School

*Monday 15th December – Tuesday 16th December 2008
SSERC, Dunfermline*

Building on the evident success of the 2007 – 2008 CPD programme run by SSERC and its partners, we are offering a residential course to support Curriculum for Excellence. The course will follow an interactive approach with a focus on practical work and active learning. We will address how contemporary issues and the associated science can be explored through the curriculum. The draft programme for the course can be found on the SSERC website: www.sserc.org.uk

Course structure

Teaching approaches to support learning will be key features of the course. Practical sessions will be held at the SSERC premises, Dunfermline. Accommodation will be provided at hotels local to SSERC.

'I am leaving this course very inspired and motivated to use these good practices in my classroom and within the wider school'.

Registration and Costs

Application forms can be downloaded from www.sserc.org.uk or E-mail: cpd@sserc.org.uk

Forms should be returned to SSERC by 21st November 2008.

Overnight accommodation and all meals are provided.

Please note that there is no fee for this course as it is underpinned and supported from a variety of third-party sources. In addition your school may claim back from us any incurred cover costs up to the value of £250.

In the event of failure to attend after registration, without adequate reason, the full estimated cost of the residential course (£250) will be charged. Please ensure that your institution is aware of this rule prior to submission of your registration.
