

Response card

Instructions

In this exercise you must judge whether various situations are good or bad and try to give reasons for your decisions.

Instructions

For each card you must decide how moral the situation is and describe it as:

morally very good morally good morally neutral morally bad morally very bad

You must also write down a reason for your decision.

What do we mean by moral?

- A sense of what is wrong or right.
- A feeling of how we should live and act.

How do we make these decisions?

We learn a code of behaviour from the society where we live and we investigate the choices which we have.

Response card

Title of dilemma:

Circle your moral choice for each card below.

Card 1

morally very good morally good morally neutral morally bad morally very bad

Reason for decision:

Card 2

morally very good morally good morally neutral morally bad morally very bad

Reason for decision:

Card 3

morally very good morally good morally neutral morally bad morally very bad

Reason for decision:

Card 4

morally very good morally good morally neutral morally bad morally very bad

Reason for decision:

Card 5

morally very good morally good morally neutral morally bad morally very bad

Reason for decision:

